

Another Fatwa by Wahhabis: Serving Different Dishes at Once Is Haraam!

The family magazine Rotana published in Jordan, announced in its new number: one of Wahhabi Muftis claimed that going to restaurants with open buffets (self services) are prohibited.

However, most restaurants and hotels in Saudi Arabia are of this type and people also prefer such places because of the variety of dishes served.

Owners of restaurant and hotels and people reacted to this fatwa in confusion and anger.

In this regard another Wahhabi mufti announced Mickey Mouse as an apostate who should be slaughtered. However, Mickey Mouse is a cartoon character and this fatwa has made itself a laughing stock for American and western media and comedians.

Regardless of the animosity and grudge these so-called scholars feel for holy Imams, Prophet's family and shias, their divisive fatwas, verdicts such as those mentioned above or their famous fatwas about Zoolbia, soccer matches and soccer players, have made other religions followers in east and west and even atheists mock them.

Source: Abna