

The story of a companion (Sahabi) who used to ogle while praying

Al-Bani reveals the story of a companion who used to ogle while praying (Salat)

The text of Muahammad Naserdin al-Bani speech (ibn Baz call him the reviver of ahl-al-Sunnat and Jima'at's religion)

A companion of Rasoul-Allah was praying in the last line deliberately...why? Because there was a beautiful woman who was praying at the first line...so when he was in a prostrate position (Sejdeh) he would watch her from under his arms...(then he and his students laugh for a while) and he continues:...God may be satisfied with him...truly...because he is a companion...maybe you remember...I'm not telling you to act like them...(then he laughs)... but I'm telling you this to know that we are not like them in erudition and knowledge and God counts all the good deeds and wrong deeds..So anyone, whose good deeds prevail over his sins, would be blessed...and vice versa...and the highest and greatest deed is to be a company to Rasoul-Allah...
